Description

The Arc Wireless Car Charger blends innovation with elegance to deliver quality performance while on the road. Designed to seamlessly integrate into everyday life, this 15W charger clips firmly onto any car vent and features an adjustable brace for additional support. The charger comes with a metal ring for non MagSafe phones, ensuring compatibility with any device. Additional features include LED charging indicator lights, one handed placement, and the ability to use your device in either portrait or landscape positions. The sleek black glass finish, refined copper accents, and quality components make this a standout accessory. Presented in a beautifully crafted INGENIO gift box, it is ideal for corporate gifting, and the ultimate brand statement. INGENIO - Designed to lead, built to last, made to inspire.
