Description

The Rubber Desk Mat gives desks a solid work zone that copes with daily graft, from keyboards and mice to notebooks, mugs and the occasional desk shuffle. It lays flat to keep gear steady, takes the edge off noise, and protects surfaces from scratches, spills and wear, making it a go-to for offices, home setups, hot desks, classrooms and events. Big enough to frame a full workstation yet tidy on the desk, it’s built for long hours, quick clean-ups and brand visibility that sits front and centre every working day. More Info
